

EVEN if you have never read Robert Louis Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," or if you never saw Richard Mansfield interpret this famous dual character on the stage, you know the story is shivery. There probably has never been a story written which made so many people afraid to go up the dark stairs alone. Right now John Barrymore is jekyl-and-hyde-ing all over the Paramount-Artcraft lot. Get out your shivers and dust them off.

WHO but those of us who know would ever guess that the stringy-haired, wicked eyed, talon-fingered beast above and the kindly gentleman in top hat across the way are one and the same John Barrymore. A few years ago people thought that John Barrymore could play only light roles—then came that amazing Galsworthy drama, "Justice," which proved him a master of woe. He has been adventuring in dramatic depths ever since.
