Barbara's Little Boy Is Happy

WHETHER in New York or Hollywood, on location or in a studio, the tiny lad whom Barbara La Marr adopted from a Texas orphan asylum was her most devoted companion. When she realized that her long illness might mean death, it was thoughts of her baby companion, rather than the passing of a glamorous career, which grieved her.

During the filming of "Poor Men's Wives" Barbara had met ZaSu Pitts, that splendid dramatic actress, also working in the picture. The talk of their children, at that time mere infants, drew the two women together.

When Barbara became dangerously ill, "Sonny" went over to live with "Baby Anne."

He is living there yet. Only his name is now Don Mike Gallery, adopted son of ZaSu Pitts Gallery and her husband.

A picture of Barbara was shown to Sonny. "Oh, yes," he remarked simply. "That was my first mamma. She has gone to heaven and God has given me a new mamma and sister."

And there could be no doubt that the first mamma must have been happy, could she have seen her little pal slip his hand into his sister's and smile into the face of the woman whom he now calls "mother."
